

WEEK	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday
Week 1 Block week			2nd May Meet and Greet for all students Each level will meet other students in their level to share ideas, thoughts and experience of the programme. Your mentor will discuss the expectations, requirements and the 'nuts and bolts' of the programme. When: 1.30 - 2.30pm Where: See notice board or ask your tutor. All information will be given when roll is taken.
Week 2 1st week of Mains Classes	7th May Hui Come and meet your fellow students. Tea and coffee will be supplied. Facilitated by: Student Link Where: Certificate Studio T1.02 When: 12.15-1.30pm	8th May Student Link 'Meet and Greet' Come and meet your Student Link group. Bring any questions or comments. Open-time for discussions and meet up. Come and have nibbles with us. Facilitated by: Student Link Where: T2.34 When: 12.40-1.15pm	9th May Creating Murals Come and learn about the process of creating murals. See examples of successful muralists, talk about strategies to initiate connection with clients, conceptual methods, external factors, and how much to charge. Who: Aidan Walbaekken Where: T2.34 When: 12.40- 1.30pm
Please register for your Block 2 classes. Registrations open from 7th - 20th May
Week 3	14th May What do Creativity Projects have to do with me Come along and learn more about the Creativity Projects and how they help you develop your creative practice. Facilitated by: Sarah Brock Where: T2.34 When: 12.40-1.30pm	15th May Know Your Stuff: Practical Research Skills Gain a better understanding of the interconnectedness and intertextuality of creativity in order to explore, examine and develop our own creative work. Link into your core drivers to help you become sustainably creative. Facilitated by: Marci Tackett and Dane Divine Where: T2.34 When: 12.40-1.30pm	16th May Exhibition Korero Come & meet your exhibition team & have a discussion about how you can get involved in the exciting process of sharing & showcasing your peers & your own creativity, in the end of term exhibition. Nibbles provided. Facilitated by: Exhibition team/student link. Where: T2.34 When: 12.40-1.15pm
Week 4	21st May Who are you as Artist and Creative? As you develop as creative practitioner it is important to think about where what you make fits in to the larger community. Who (or what) are you influenced by? Who are your contemporaries? What are they doing? What are they influenced by? Facilitated by: Sarah Brock and Dane Divine Where: T2.34 When: 12.40-1.15pm	22nd May Lunchtime talk: Our guest is David Balm, the president of the Hutt Art Society. The Hutt Art Society, which has been founded more than 60 years ago, is running the Hutt art Centre at the corner of Myrtle Road and Huia Street near to the Dowse Museum. Besides successfully operating the Odlin Gallery and the Huia Gallery, the Hutt Art Centre has for the more than 200 members a variety of studio spaces available like pottery, printmaking, painting, embroidery and weaving. On offer are tutored and untutored classes and group meetings. The Hutt Art Society also runs the annual Muriel Hopper Award, which is coming up soon again. Facilitated by: Johannes Mueller-Welschhof Where: T2.34 When: 12.40- 1.30pm	23rd May Creativity talks Come along to listen and learn about different artists and their practices. Who: TBC Where: T2.36 When: 12.40-1.30pm

WEEK	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday
Week 5	28th May Advanced Diploma 'Show and Tell' Come and see what the Advanced Diploma students have been creating and find out more about the programme. Facilitated by: John Cornish Where: Advanced Dip Studio (opposite jewellery) When: 12.30-1.30pm	29th May Level 6 students' 'Show and Tell' Come and see what the Level 6 students have been creating. Who: Aaron Frater Where: T2.34 When: 12.30-1.30pm	30th May Level 5 students' 'Show and Tell' Come and see what the Level 5 students have been creating. Facilitated by: Natalie Halley Where: T2.34 When: 12.30-1.30pm
Week 6	4th June Writing your artist statement and bio Come and meet Sophie Saunders, an exhibiting artist and distance delivery mentor with years of experience. Explore what makes a good artist statement or bio and have a go at creating or improving your existing one. Facilitated by: Dane Divine and Sophie Saunders Where: T2.34 When: 12.40 – 1.30pm	5th June Using your Visual Diary Come along and watch our resource on using your visual diary. Join in the discussion afterward. Bring your visual diary to show and tell. Who: Marci Tackett Where: T2.36 When: 12.40 – 1.30pm	6th June How to achieve your creative goals We all have dreams, some of us even have plans, this workshop is designed to help you start to make them real. Learn different ways of planning and organising to better achieve your creative goals. Who: Dane Divine Where: T2.34 When: 12.40-1.30pm
Please register for your Term 2 2019 classes. Registration open 7th June - 20th June
Week 7	11th June Hui Come along and meet your fellow students. Tea and coffee will be supplied. Facilitated by: Student Link Where: Certificate Studio T1.02 When: 12.15 – 1.30pm	12th June Exploring Potential Vocational Pathways Employment, whether it's a job you've created or one you want to apply for, there can be a whole heap of hidden terrors. Come along and find out more about interviews and interviewing, submitting pitches, applying for jobs, dealing with tax and IRD. Facilitated by: Dane Divine Where: T2.34 When: 12.40-1.30pm	13th June Creativity Talks Come along to listen and learn about different artists and their practices. Who: TBC Where: T2.36 When: 12.40-1.30pm
Week 8 Last week of Mains Classes	18th June Managing your social media presence Everyone talks about how important it is to have a social media presence these days, but what does that mean and how do you manage your presence across the range of platforms. Come along and add to the discussion. Facilitated by: Dane Divine Where: T2.36 When: 12.40-1.30pm	19th June Creativity Talks Come along to listen and learn about different artists and their practices. Who: TBC Where: T2.36 When: 12.40-1.30pm Exhibition Hand-in Facilitated by: Exhibition team Where: Foyer of Taylor building When: 3pm-6pm	20th June Creativity Talks Come along to listen and learn about different artists and their practices. Who: TBC Where: T2.36 When: 12.40-1.30pm Exhibition Hand-in Facilitated by: Exhibition team Where: Foyer of Taylor building When: 12 noon-3pm
Week 9 Block Week			27th June Exhibition Opens When: 6pm- 9pm